Biographical Note

Helen Strzelczyk was born April 9, year unknown. She was a member of the Women's Army Corps (WAC) during World War II. She was stationed in Oro Bay, New Guinea from September 1944 - April 7, 1945, where she worked at the Signal Branch Supply Division USASOS General Depot, also known as "The Pentagon," in Procurement in charge of the Requisition Typing sub-section. From there, she was transferred to the Philippines. She arrived in Manila on April 25, 1945 and was then assigned to Quezon City.

Scope and Content of the Collection

The Helen Strzelczyk Collection consists of memoirs, sketches, uniform pieces and accessories, patches and photographs. The collection relates to Strzelczyk's time serving during World War II. During her service, she was stationed in Oro Bay, New Guinea and Quezon City, Philippines. The collection's papers arrived in a folder, the photographs in an envelope and in no discernable order. All items were reorganized by museum staff.
Arrangement

The collection arrived in no discernable order. Museum staff has arranged the collection. The collection consists of three series:

Series One: Personal Papers

This series contains correspondence, memoirs and sketches. In her letter to "Taba", Strzelczyk outlines her return stateside. Her three memoirs describe the time she spent in Oro Bay, New Guinea and the Philippines, and the time aboard the Maui traveling between the two. Also included are photocopies of sketches that appear to portray time on the Maui. The sketches are signed "EVA".

Series Two: Ephemera

This vast majority of this series is made up of Strzelczyk's WAC uniform and military-issued accessories. Also included are various pins and patches she received. There is also a pair of earrings with Pallas Athena's head, which is the official insignia of the U.S. Women's Army Corps. The contents of this series have been separated from the collection and rehoused.

Series Three: Photographs

The small photograph series includes black and white photos of Strzelczyk in uniform, one with a male soldier.
