2020 PMML LITERATURE AWARD FOR LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT IN MILITARY WRITING

Established in 2007 and sponsored by the Pritzker Military Foundation, the Pritzker Literature Award serves to recognize a living author who has made a significant contribution to the understanding of military history including military affairs. Nominees will be evaluated based on a lifetime body of work and may be of any nationality and may have written their collective works in any language.

AUTHOR NOMINATION

Author Name: ____________________________________________________________

Nominated By: __________________________________________________________

Contact Information: ____________________________________________________

PHONE
EMAIL

How has the author contributed to the understanding of military affairs?
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Please attach the author’s list of publications and/or CV and send one copy of one “definitive work” by the author no later than March 13, 2020 to:

Pritzker Military Museum & Library
Attn: Literature Award
104 S. Michigan Ave., Ste. 400
Chicago, IL 60603

Nominations are accepted from authors, publishers, and other author representatives. The list of nominations will not be made public and all announcements about the Award will be made by Pritzker Military Museum & Library. Questions about the Pritzker Military Museum & Library, or the Pritzker Literature Award, should be directed to the Museum & Library at 312.374.9333 or info@pritzkermilitary.org.