Biographical Note

Elizabeth (née Timrick) Bohling was born August 2, 1947 in Chicago. Her father served in the Army in WWII, and her brothers served in the military in later years as well.

Bohling earned her BSN in 1976 from the University of Alabama in Huntsville, and her MS in Nursing from Rush University in 1992. She was in the military for 30 years as a medical surgical nurse, among other things. Bohling was in the 85th Division, 1st Brigade. She earned the Army Achievement Medal, and the National Defense Service Medal. In most of her documents, she is known as Elizabeth Pidcock from her first marriage. She served at a number of military hospitals and medical centers throughout her career.

Scope and Content of the Collection

This collection consists of materials relating to the service of Elizabeth Bohling, and her father, Willard Timrick. Bohling was a Nurse in the Army for 25 years, becoming a Colonel during her tenure. The collection has service records, evaluation records, uniforms, photos and pins.

Arrangement

The collection arrived with no discernible arrangement, and was rearranged by PMML staff into 1 slim document box, 1 banker's box, and 2 artifact boxes. The collection was also arranged into series according to Elizabeth Bohling and Willard Timrick.

Series One: Elizabeth Bohling, 1977-2007

This collection consists of the documents and photos related to the service of Elizabeth Bohling for 30 years in the Army as a Medical Surgical Nurse. This series contains restricted photos due to Bohling's Social Security Number being listed on the photograph.

Series Two: Willard F. Timrick, 1942-1945

This collection consists of documents and photos relating to Elizabeth Bohling's father, Willard, and his service in the Army during WWII from 1941 to 1945.

Restrictions

Due to Elizabeth Bohling's Social Security Number printed on some portraits, there are restrictions to researchers without PMML staff present. No reproductions are allowed for 50 years.

Rights

Copyrights held by Elizabeth Bohling were transferred to the Pritzker Military Museum & Library. All other rights are held by the author or publisher. Users assume responsibility for following copyright laws as established by US Code Title 17.
