

Baker & Taylor's Boundless

You can download the "Boundless" app on your device or go to the website to browse the materials. Please note that if you check out an e-book while logged in on the website, when you open the app on your device, you will be able to access the e-books you checked out on the website. This document instructs on how to log in as a PMML member using either of these options...

Boundless App—logging in

Download and open the Boundless app on your device, then search for the Pritzker Military Museum & Library. You will be prompted for your "Card Number" enter the number on the back of your member card, and Login. You are ready to find, checkout, and use e-books.

Website—logging in

Visit <https://pmml.boundless.baker-taylor.com/ng/view/library>

Once at the website, click “Login” in the upper right corner.

Type in your member number and click “Login.”

Once you are logged in through the website or app, you can search for, check out, and access the e-books. Depending on the device you are using to access your e-books, the process can vary slightly. You can also bring your device into the PMML, we will be happy to help you through the process.

Call or contact the PMML librarians.

If you would like to see us offer more e-books, use this collection, and please let us know!
