Biographical Note

Silas Marion Marvick was born on December 11, 1899 in Morris, Illinois to Sam S. Marvick and Margretha Bjelland Marvick.

Marvick served in World War I. At the start of World War II, he served as a civilian specialist in the Office of People Analytics (OPA). On January 17, 1942 he entered the service with the U.S. Army Signal Corps. Marvick worked as a Production Expeditor and served overseas in the European Theater until illness sent him back to the U.S. in August of 1942. He was honorably discharged on November 29, 1945.

Silas M. Marvick died on March 1, 1968.
