Biographical Note

Charles S. Silsbee attended the US Naval Academy from 1921-1925. He was active duty from February 1942 (Lieutenant) to October 1945 (Lt. Commander), upon which time he joined the Naval Reserve. He retired in May 1964 as a Commander. Silsbee earned the Naval Reserve, WWII American Campaign, and WWII Victory Medals.

Robert Herguth was drafted for a 2 year term and served in the Psychological Warfare Division during the Korean War. He was promoted from Private to Sergeant during his tenure with the Army. He was transferred from active duty to the Enlisted Reserve Corps for 5 years on 25 September 1952. In March 1953 he was awarded the Commendation Ribbon (with medal pendant) for meritorious service for the period 20 July 1951 to 15 August 1952.

Scope and Content of the Collection

The Herguth Family Collection consists of 8 boxes measuring 2.5 linear feet and contains the papers of Charles S. Silsbee and Robert Herguth. Silsbee's papers include records from the Naval Academy, the USS Idaho, and his time as a reserve officer, in addition to personal files, correspondence, and uniform pieces. Herguth's papers include records from the psychological warfare division, and his journalism work, correspondence, and memorabilia.

Arrangement

The collection consists of eight series:

Series One: Military Documents, 1926-1988, n.d.

This series contains materials related to Silsbee and Herguth's military service. Silsbee's records concern his service in the Navy, Naval Academy attendance, and involvement in the USS Idaho Association. Materials include correspondence, memos, letters of recommendation, service and separation records, news clippings, bulletins, war savings bonds applications, war ration stamp booklets, notebooks, Naval Academy alumni directories, and certificates. Herguth's records concern his service in the Army during the Korean War. Materials include correspondence, draft records, identification cards, orders, training manuals, notebooks, newsletters, and leaflets.

Series Two: US Military Radio Commentary Scripts, 1951-1952, n.d.

This series contains materials relating to US Military Radio Commentary, such as scripts from commentaries that were broadcast in the United States, Korea, and China.

Series Three: Psychological Operations Leaflets, 1941-1952, n.d.

This series contains leaflets developed and printed by the Psychological Warfare Division in Korean and Chinese.

Series Four: Publications and Newspaper Clippings Collected and Written by Robert Herguth, 1940-1960, n.d.

This series contains newspaper clippings and magazine articles.

Series Five: Personal Papers, Correspondence, and Memorabilia, 1930-1953, n.d.

This series contains personal papers and memorabilia of Herguth and Silsbee, including correspondence, letters, telegrams, postcards, stories written by Herguth, insurance documents, identification cards, applications, and holiday cards, and dime books. This series also has a miscellaneous folder containing a notebook, prayers, photo envelopes, notes, booklets, and memos.

Series Six: Photographs and Scrapbook Pages, 1946-1956, n.d.

This series contains photographs and scrapbook pages including drawings, poems, photographs, and photo negatives.

Series Seven: Scrapbook, US Naval Academy, 1925

This series contains a scrapbook from Silsbee's time at the Naval Academy, from 1921-1925.

Series Eight: Oversized, 1924-1966, n.d.

This series contains 2 boxes of oversized items, such as magazine and newspaper articles, certificates, leaflets, ship blueprints, and prints of Navy uniforms.
