Biographical Note

Francis P. Kane was born in Chicago on July 12, 1907 to Francis J. and Bridget (née Byrnes) Kane.

Kane joined the Enlisted Reserve Corps in 1927, and then the Illinois National Guard in 1932. He joined the Enlisted Reserve Corps in 1927, and in 1932, the Illinois National Guard. During World War II, he served in the Pacific with the 108th Combat Engineers of the 33rd "Prairie" Division of the U.S. Army. Kane spent time training in Hawaii and New Guinea in 1943-1944.

In late 1944, the 33rd Division was sent to Luzon, Philippines and assigned the task of capturing the city of Baguio. Once that was achieved, the division stayed in central Luzon until war's end, and they were then sent to Honshu, Japan until 1946. Kane earned several citations for his service, including the Silver Star, the Legion of Merit and the Bronze Star.

After the war he continued to serve with the 33rd Division of the Illinois National Guard, finally as a Major General and the Guard's commander in the mid-1960s, until he was removed from command in February 1968 by Governor Kerner. Kane also commanded a North Shore post of the American Legion, as well as the Chicago Chapter of the Military Order of the World Wars. He also served as vice president of the Association of the United States Army.

Supplementary to his military service, Kane served as a trustee for the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago (1962-1967) and Deputy Commissioner of Public Works, City of Chicago, in 1967. In 1968 he was appointed Special Assistant to the Mayor in charge of Gun Registration.

Scope and Content of the Collection

The Francis P. Kane, Citizen Soldier collection consists of military documents, photographs, military uniforms, insignia, medals and flags related to his service with the Army in the Pacific Theater during WWII with the 108th Combat Engineers of the 33rd Division of the U.S. Army, then later as a Maj. Gen. in the National Guard, and also his active time in several military and veterans associations. It also contains immigration and service records pertaining to his father, Francis. J. Kane, from Ireland.

Arrangement

The collection arrived with no discernible arrangement and was rearranged chronologically into series by PMML staff. The collection is contained within 2 legal boxes and 1 oversize box. The collection is arranged into series according to personal papers, military papers, and photographs.

Series One: Personal Papers, 1899-1979, Box 1

These records pertain to Maj. Gen. Kane's father, Francis J. Kane, with citizenship and enlistment records. Also included are records pertaining to Maj. Gen. Kane's personal life after the military as the Deputy Commissioner of Public Works in Chicago, and the Commander of the North Shore American Legion post, such as speeches and banquet programs.

Series Two: Military Papers, 1935-1959, Box 1

These records include Maj. Gen. Kane's Personnel Files from the National Guard and Army, military citations including the award for the Bronze Star Silver Star, and the Legion of Merit. Also, there are records of Kane's military education, property claim, life insurance, and promotion documents.

Series Three: Photographs, 1959-1967, Box 2, 3

These photographs pertain to Maj. Gen. Kane's time spent in Hawaii, Luzon, Philippines, Netherlands East Indies, New Guinea and Honshu, Japan. There is also a photo album entitled "1967 Field Training 33rd Infantry Division, Illinois National Guard, and Camp Ripley, Minn." but all photographs do not appear to be from that year.
