Biographical Note

The Reserve Officers Association (ROA) is a professional association of commissioned and warrant officers of the nation's seven uniformed services and their spouses. Founded in 1922, the ROA's mission is to support and promote the development and execution of a military policy for the United States that will provide adequate national security. The ROA supports Reserve officers in their military and civilian lives.

Brig. Gen. Henry J. Reilly, USAR was born on April 29, 1881 and was one of the original founders of the ROA. He served as its first National President from 1922-1923. He died on December 13, 1963 and is buried at Arlington National Cemetery.

Scope and Content of the Collection

The Henry J. Reilly Memorial Collection consists of newspaper clippings, book jackets, field messages, negatives and maps which were found within a collection of books donated to the library. The materials range in date from 1909 to 1983. They are arranged into five series by type of material.

Arrangement

Series One: Ephemera from Books, 2-Jun-1909 – 22-Jul-1983, Box 1

This series consists of newspaper clippings, book jackets and book reviews. The items are arranged alphabetically by the title of the book in which they were found.

Series Two: Scrapbook, Box 2

This series consists of a single scrapbook containing 19 newspaper clippings.

Series Three: Journal, Box 2

This journal contains field messages to the headquarters of the 42nd Division.

Series Four: Negatives, Box 2

This series consists of two negatives of unknown subjects and dates. They were found placed in a book.

Series Five: Maps, Box 2

This series consists of eleven maps found in four different books.

Rights

Copyrights held by Reserve Officers Association were transferred to the Pritzker Military Museum & Library. All other rights are held by the author or publisher. Users assume responsibility for following copyright laws as established by US Code Title 17.
